Dedication

We, the class of '53 take pride in dedicating this our 1953 Signal to Mr. Fred H. Manning, our principal for the past two and a half years.

Though we appreciate him for his administrative ability, we will best remember him for his patience and help to us during his stay at Dennison High School.

Administration

Supt. E. F. McCarroll

During his entire tenure as Superintendent of Schools, Mr. McCarroll, our present Supt., has served Dennison schools faithfully and diligently. His loyalty and consideration to both the school and the student body has won the appreciation of all. We are proud to have him as our leader.

Principal Fred H. Manning

Mr. Manning has proved himself to be a capable and efficient leader and advisor in this school. His personality and interest in our school is appreciated. He has become linked through friendship with the students and faculty.

SENIOR HISTORY

In 1949, 63 little green specks were bunched together into one large green speck - the freshmen class. How blissful was that first year for us, for ignorance, as we all know, is bliss. However, Jeannine Bache was elected freshman attendant and also one of our cheerleaders which she held through out her junior year. Bill Hunter was our class president this year and also our sophomore year. Naomi Selzer and Carolyn Davis were our majorettes in the band.

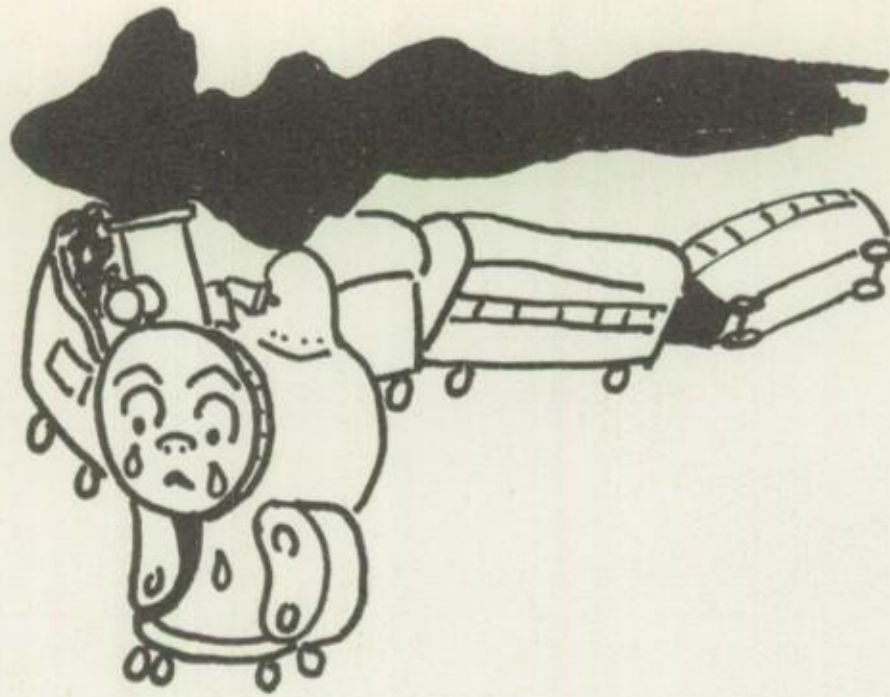

Perhaps we were great worries to our teachers our sophomore year, but how well we remember it! It was this year that Carolyn Davis was chosen as the queen's attendant and a few of our boys were starting to excel in sports.

During the junior year this large green speck blossomed into a brilliant class. It was this year that many of our boys' names appeared on the sports pages. Some of these are: Bente, Wagstaff, Morris, Zeimer, McCord, Hunter, Hillyer, Thompson, Downie, Jackson, Edwards, and Rabbege. Ruth Wright was winner of the local and county Prince of Peace Contests. Jim McCord was president this year and also our senior year. Mary Lee Schupp, Ruth Wright, and Bill Hunter were elected as members of the National Honor Society. Lois Barr was chosen for the class attendant this year. This class presented the highly successful play, "Junior Prom."

And now, as we look out and see our graduation drawing near, we know we will never forget those glorious days spent in D.H.S. Five more students were added to the National Honor Society. These were Snow, Wagstaff, Miracle, Brown, and Stocker. Jeannine Bache was our Queen this year with Patty Snow as her attendant. Naomi Selzer was our head majorette and Shirley Maxwell, one of our cheerleaders. Wagstaff and Bente were co-captains of the basketball team and Hillyer and Hunter were co-captains of the football team. Our class play, "Mister Co-Ed," has proved to be just as successful as our junior play.

CLASS WILL

I, Shirley Maxwell, will to Violet Soulsby, my position as senior cheerleader. To all future seniors Mr. Lower as class sponsor. To all the kids from the park, a boy as nice as Dale Zeimer to bring them to school on cold mornings. To Dave O'Hara, Jim Campisi, and Don Moody, all my good times at D.H.S. Also to Arlene, Ruth, Joyce, and Mary, all my books and hope they get more out of them than I did.

I, John Whitaker, will to "Zeke" Shilling and Dick Cummings, one teaspoonful of gasoline so they won't have to walk to school. To Larry Nardi, my World Problems book so he won't get killed fighting for one. To Judy Moody and my sister Ruth, my ability to get along with Mr. Jirles. To All of the kids of the north end, a ride to school with Mrs. Deems and when you get there I hope they have as much fun as I did.

I, Carolyn Davis, will to my two brothers, Bob and Bill, all my good times at D.H.S., to Carl Ludwig, somebody to bother in seventh period study hall, to Janice Wallace, my few inches in the driver education car and I hope she has as much fun as I did.

I, Gloria Natoli, will to Jackie Valentine, my seat in personal problems. To Betty Jean Fulton, my place as typist for the Hi-Lites, and to all the students at D.H.S., all my good times.

I, Ralph Edwards, being of insane mind and unsound body, do hereby will my position on the football team to Dick Armstrong and my new headgear to "Chink" Murray.

I, Corky Deeslie, will to sister, Barbars and Nancy Hargrave, all the good fortune that I have had chance to meet up with. I hope they have more use for those classes than I did.

I, Anna Mary Rabbege, will to my sister, Nancy, all my good times at D.H.S. To Arlene Stier, my personal problems book and to the student who gets there first, my seat in senior homeroom.

I, Joann Wise, will to my brother, Jack, a longer stay at D.H.S. To Coreen Emhoff, I will my seat in the back of the room and my love for skating to Doris Shaffer.

I, Tom Freed, will to Don Tinney, all my books and hopes he gets more out of them than I did. To Bob Thompson, my seat in senior homeroom. To Lefty, my ability to talk in study hall 34 the sixth period. To Mr. Lower, another senior class like ours and hope they have as much fun as we had.

I, Sylvia Biddlestone, will to Barbara Yonley, my French horn. To Nancy Arnold, my ability to talk Mr. Stucky out of horn lessons, to Mary Ellen Wilson, my ability to be quiet, and to all my friends, my good times at D.H.S.

I, Shirley Carpenter, will to my sister, Judy, all my good times at D.H.S. To Doris Shaffer and Anna Mae Vermillion, Mr. Lower as homeroom sponsor.

I, Beverly Hickey, will to Betty Jean Fulton, my seat in senior homeroom and Mr. Lower as class sponsor. To my brother, Donnie, and to Judy Riggs, all my good times at D.H.S.

I, Shirley Bridgeman, will to my brother, Bud, my seat in senior homeroom. To my sisters, Darlene and Judy, and to Don Van Fossen, all my good times at D.H.S.

I, Lois Barr, will to my brothers all my good times at D.H.S. To Jeanie Reed, my seat in senior homeroom.

I, Deb Bente, leave my books to my sister, Joyce, and to Larry Shilling my ability to get along with Mr. Manning in sales class.

I, David Williams, will to my brother, Tommy, all my books and hope he will get more out of them than I did. To Benny and Larry Nardi, all my good times at D.H.S.

I, Floyd Morris, refuse to will anything because if it isn't worth taking it isn't worth giving away.

I, Richard Jackson, will my position on the football team to Gary Wright and my books to the unfortunate fellow who gets them.

I, Nick Carter, will to my niece and nephew Molly and Bruce, my car to drive to school. To Larry Shilling, my life savings of 4¢ to buy gas so he can ride to school. To Larry Nardi, my seat in Mr. Lower's homeroom. To Coach Stocker a gym class that doesn't club like ours. And last but not least, a free bus line from the park to school.

I, Sue Stocker, will to the kids in the country, my 45 minute ride to school each morning. To Jean Reed, I leave my homeroom seat and all my books. To the juniors, all the good times I had in my senior year.

I, Jim McCord, being of questionable mind, have drawn up this will. I have lied, cheated, cursed, swiped, swindled, stolen and even gone so far as to study, to get all I could from this school. I am not leaving a thing. I'm taking it all with me.

I, Bob Wright, will to my brother, Jack, my ability to get along with my teachers by keeping my mouth shut. To my sister, Ruth, my ability to squeeze through the tough subjects, and I hope all the future seniors have Mr. Lower for homeroom teacher.

I, Patti Riggs, will to Barbara McCool, my seat in Typing 2 class, and all the speed tests she will have to make up. To Betty Fulton, Mr. Lower as class sponsor. To my sister, Judy, my ability never to miss a day of school.

I, Carol Destefani, will to Bill Romig, my seat in 7th period study hall. To my cousins Melvin and Becky, and all the other students at D.H.S. my good times and I hope they have many more.

I, Don Ramsey, will to my sister, Dorothy, everything that I leave behind, which only will be the E's that I have received in English. And I hope she can get more out of it than I did.

I, Alan Miracle, will to my brother and sister and the rest of the Park, many long, cold walks to school. To Don Moody and Dick Cummings, my great ability in science. To Mr. Manning, a public address system to play with in his old age.

I, Bill Hunter, will to my sister, Jo Ann, all my good times at D.H.S. To Dick Cummings, I will a bushel basket for him to catch his passes in next year. To all the boys of next years football squad, I will all the thrills and good times I had playing football.

I, Naomi Dale Selzer, will to my cousin, Helen Selzer, my books and hope she gets more out of them than I did. To Larry Nardi, my seat in 34 study hall. To Donald Tinney, my seat in senior homeroom. My position as head Majorette to whoever gets it and I hope they enjoy it as much as I did.

I, Shirley Shaw, will to my cousin, Gary Thompson, all my good times at D.H.S. To Mary Ellen Wilson, the ability to take dictation faster than I did.

I, Irene Zavasky, will to my brother, Richard, all my good times at D.H.S. My job as cashier in the cafeteria to anyone who likes to eat late, and to all the rest of the students, all my books and seats in this school.

I, Patty Patterson, will to all the Park kids, a ride to school when it's ten below. To my cousin, Glenda, my personal problems book on "Marriage and Family Living" and I'm sure she will get as much out of that book as I did. To the senior classes of the future, Mr. Lower as class sponsor.

I, Ginger Arnold, will to some unsuspecting soul, my books and I hope they get more out of them than I did. To Joyce Bente, my seat in Mr. Lower's senior homeroom and to Dawna Alder-gate, all my good times at D.H.S.

I, Shirley Brown, will to Ruth Clantz, Barbara Yonley, Joyce Bente, and Violet Soulsby my luck to get a ride to school almost every morning. To Betty Jean Fulton, all the fun I had in the office when I was supposed to be working. To some unlucky girl, all my head-aches from trying to get the money to come out right in G.A.A. To Arlene Stier, I leave my seat in front of Mr. Lower's desk in world problems. To Janice Wallace, "Popper" Richardson, Joann Stier, Dave O'Hara, and Don Moody all my good times at D.H.S.

I, Basil Hillyer, will to the big 3, Jim Campisi, Dave O'Hara, and Don Moody, all my school books to be divided equally among them, and hope they get as much from them as I did. (JOKE) To Joyce Bente, all my good times at D.H.S.

I, Gordon Downie, will as follows: To Chuck Stocker, a team that can win more games than we could. To John Harmon, a state championship for basketball. To Jay Peterson, a new crew to haul to Uhrichsville at noon. To Bob Bloom, Dave O'Hara, and "Ace", someone else to ride home with from football practice.

I, Patty Snow, will to Jean Reed, my ability to get along with all of my teachers. To some poor unsuspecting soul, the pleasure of being senior class secretary. To Joyce Bente, Arlene Stier, Popper Richardson, Don Moody, "Chink" Murry, and Dave O'Hara all my good times at D.H.S.

I, Dale Zeimer, will to Red Huston, my rusty old ball and chain that I have had these 12 fateful years of my life. To Coach Charlie Stocker, a bull whip, a box of aspirins and an ice pack for his head for next football season. To "Gravy Train" Dick Cummings, a lifetime ticket to ride the Gravy Train. To "Moot Toot" Moody, the center position on the football team.

I, Jeannine Bache, will to "Moot Toot", "Chink", "Tinny", "Dick", and "Satch" the ability to have a good football and basketball team next year. To Violet, Lois, Popper, Joyce, and Arlene, all of my fine times here at D.H.S. To some lucky girl, my privilege of being Homecoming Queen. And last but not least, to Janice and "Ace", the ability to have all the fun they can while in school.

I, Marion Rabbege, will to Bob Thompson, the ability to get along with Mr. Manning better than I did and my position as linebacker on the football team. To my sister, Nancy, all my good times at D.H.S.

I, Mary Lee Schupp, will to some unsuspecting junior the position of editor of the Signal and to Barbie Deeslie, my seat in band. To Linda and Larry Miracle, Dawna Aldergate, and Donna Gold the fun we had in band and don't give Mr. Stucky too hard of a time. Remember someone said "Some people are as weak as a crutch."

I, Eddie Wagstaff, will to "Ace" Ludwig, my positions on the football and basketball teams. To Dave O'Hara and Jim Campisi, I leave my bookkeeping book; they can fight over it. To any student who wants them, I leave my books, they ought to be as good as new, I never used them. To Mrs. Manning, I hope she can get another student who liked poetry as much as I did.

I, Ruth Wright, will to my brother, Gary, my gift of gab in hopes that he will put it to good use. To Edith Povick, Linda Miracle, and Judy Maxwell, my ability to stay out of trouble and to Mrs. Manning a class of kids who like English even half as much as I did.

I, Wilma Carpenter, will to my sister, Wanda, my job at the cafeteria. To Doris Shaffer, my home room seat in 34. To Joyce Roahrig, all my good times at D.H.S.

I, Roy Custer, will to my brothers, Braden and Don, my truck to ride to school in. To my sister, Louise my books.

I, Tom Downey, will all my books and anything that may be found belonging to me to the communists.

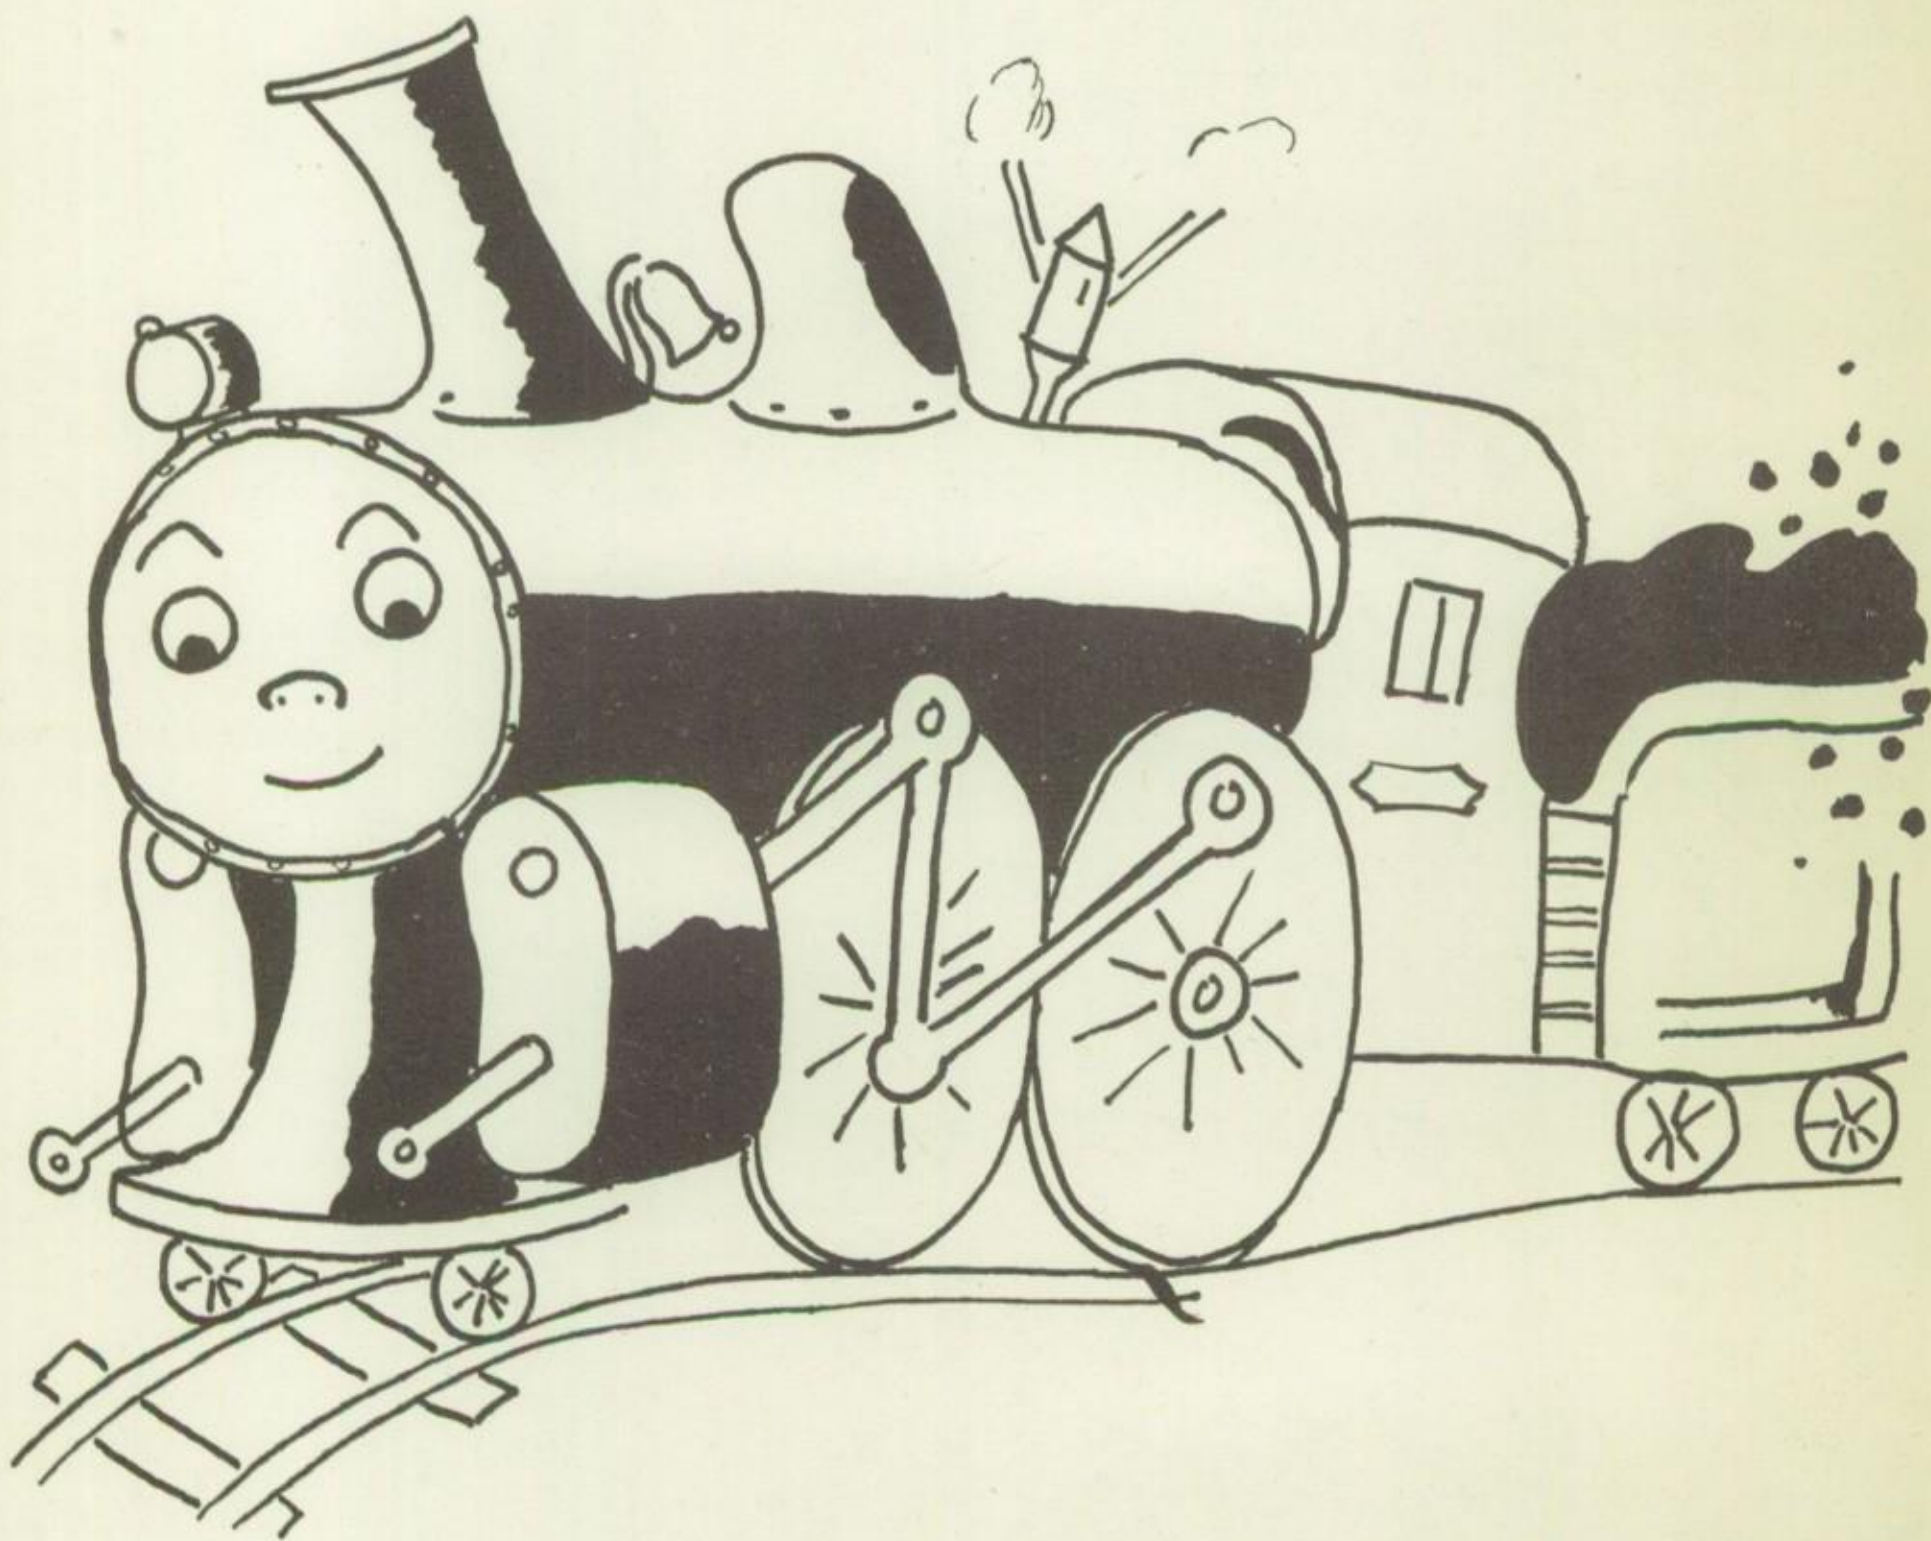

We, Don White, Wayne Sterling, and Bill Gerber, refuse to will anything on the grounds that it may tend to incriminate us.

JUNIOR HISTORY

The Juniors have bloomed into a prosperous looking class this year. Violet Soulsby and Nancy Arnold were chosen as Junior members of the National Honor Society. Violet Soulsby was also chosen a head cheerleader. Jean Reed was Junior attendant to the Homecoming Queen and Alma Sparks was one of our majorettes. Some of the names seen in the sports columns are: Dave O'Hara, Don Moody, Jack Gossett, Bob Thompson, Bob Bloom, Jim Haas, and Jim Campisi. Arlene Stier is secretary of the G.A.A.; she has held this position for two consecutive years. We are expecting great things from this class of 1954.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The sophomores this year have been very strong supporters of all school activities. Several of the sophomores have attained individual recognition. Janice Wallace was one of the majorettes and Ruth Clantz was chosen sophomore cheerleader. For their homecoming attendant, the cophomores elected Eleanor Cervellini. Carl Ludwig and Don Tinney saw action in both varsity football and basketball; Gary Wright, Gary Norman, Gary Page, Paul Sinden and Bob Roberts were on the reserve basketball team.

The sophomore class members have made many contributions to the school program; an enthusiastic and hard working junior class next year is predicted.

FRESHMEN CLASS HISTORY

The freshman class has not yet had an opportunity to win recognition in school activities although several freshmen students are well known by the older students. Little Barbara Deeslie was chosen to be one of the queen's attendants at the Homecoming Game and Mary Tanteralli was elected cheerleader. Linda Arnold, Larry Miracle, Eddie Price, and Bernadine Sikora are regular members of the school's Honor Roll. K. Herron and Larry Miracle were frequent contributors for the Hi-Lites. The freshmen class of "53" is well on its way to a fine future.

Activities

Student Council

The Student Council this year is under the guidance and direction of Mr. John Harmon. The president of the Student Council is Shirley Brown. A few of the projects the Student Council conducted this year are: Collecting money for the tuberculosis fund, the cleanup campaign, and hall patrol during the lunch hour. The student council was organized four years ago and each year has been improving and is still striving to better advantages for the students at D.H.S.

National Honor Society

To become a member of the National Honor Society the students must meet high standards of service, character, scholarship, and leadership. Mr. R. S. Kettlewell has been advisor of the National Honor Society for three years. This year there are seven seniors and two juniors. To be a member a student must have an average of 85% or better. This is one of the highest honors a student may receive. The president of the Honor Society this year is Bill Hunter.

Career Club

The Movie Club and Career Club are class clubs of the first and second period senior English classes. These clubs meet once every two weeks during regular class under the leadership of Mrs. Marjorie Manning. The purpose of each club is as follows: To provide a recreational and educational activity that will be of interest to most students and will be of value to them in later life.

It also gives students experience in parliamentary procedure and program planning. Educational and entertaining programs are presented by the different program chairmen and their committees. The Career Club and Movie Club, in a co-operative activity, served the school by preparing and presenting an original radio program, Training in Citizenship, in November in the interests of the passage of the school levy.

G A A

The Girls' Athletic Association, for the third consecutive year, is under the capable leadership of Mrs. Marjorie Manning. Some of the activities this year were bowling, skating, dancing, parties, volleyball, basketball and fudge sales. This club above all else, tries to stress good sportsmanship and teamwork.

magazine sales students

Again this year a magazine selling contest was sponsored by the Cromwell-Collier Publishing Company. This encourages competition among the classes. The senior class pulled ahead at the beginning of the contest and stayed in the lead to win the trophy, making it the second consecutive year for this class. Prizes were awarded to the nine high salesmen. Gloria Natoli, senior, who was the highest in the school won a radio; Sondra Dunlap was second highest. A percentage of each sale went into the class treasury.

Hi - Lites Club

HI LITES CLUB

The Hi Lites Club, newly organized this year, is a group of regular contributors to the Hi-Lites column which appears each week in The Evening Chronicle. These students have received their assignments each Thursday evening and turned their finished articles in on Monday. Without class credit, these few students have given their time and efforts freely and willingly. Marjorie Manning, for the third consecutive year, has edited the weekly column. Patty Snow, Gloria Natoli and Ruth Wright have been the typists for the Hi-Lites.

SENIOR PLAY

The Senior Class presented the highly successful play Mister Co-ed. The cast included: Jim McCord, Lotus Smith, "Mister Co-ed" in an exclusive girls' school; Ruth Wright, Emily Manning, a scholarship girl; Mary Lee Schupp, Miss Hayworth, president of Cedar Hill College; Patty Snow, Miss Pooley, Phys. Ed. teacher; Sue Stocker, Miss Carr, poetry teacher; Shirley Brown, Mrs. Colgate - Brewster, Lotus Smith's grandmother; Eddie Wagstaff, Gilbert Gyler, an English "Poet"; Alan Miracle, Mr. Oliver Lee Oliver, owner of Oliver Academy, Bill Hunter, Homer Quakenbush, custodian of Cedar Hill. The students of Cedar Hill: Carolyn Davis, Jeannine Bache, Beverly Hickey, Lois Barr, Anna Mary Rabbage, Carol Destefani and Virginia Arnold.

Cheerleaders

Probably the enthusiasm and spirit (behind any school sports event) rest largely with the cheerleaders. Violet Soulsby, head cheerleader this year, has been a cheerleader for the last two years. Her cooperative spirit and enthusiasm won't soon be forgotten by the squad or her classmates. Shirley Maxwell was elected senior cheerleader; Ruth Clantz, sophomore; and Mary Tanterelli, freshman. These three girls were cheerleaders for their first time this year and made an excellent showing. This group is to be commended for their fine contribution to D. H. S. this year.

The Dennison Railroaders, under their new coach, Chuck Stocker, opened the 1952 season with a rousing 34-7 victory over Midvale. The following Friday, Dennison dropped a tough defensive battle to Shadyside, 7-0. On September 26, the Railroaders made the long trip to Danville and returned with a 32-0 victory. The following week, Dennison was put down by a tough Loudenville eleven 26-0. Then, traveling to Wellsville, Dennison battled a bruising Wellsville squad to a standstill, before dropping a 33-19 thriller. Next came the traditional battle with Uhrichsville. A patched up band of Railroaders, battling a tough rolling. Although fighting hard the whole distance, Dennison came out on the short end of a 26-0 decision. The next week, the Railroaders bounced back with a 18-7 victory over Cadiz. In the homecoming game the Railroaders battled a tough undefeated Carrollton eleven to a 0-0 standstill the first half. Then in the final minutes of play, Dennison staged a brilliant comeback and emerged with an exciting 7-6 victory. Dennison rounded out their 1952 season with a thrilling 39-13 victory over Newscomerstown. The Dennison Railroaders ended the grid season with 5 victories and 4 defeats, outscoring their opponents 149-125.
